

Ms. M. Cristina Sierras-Davó (MSN, MBA, RN)

She has completed her Master Degree in Nursing Research at the age of 23 years at University of Alicante. Nowadays, she recently got her Master in Business Administration Degree, and she is working as Registered Nurse at OFTALVIST and also as Study Coordinator at Dermatology Area in Hospital General de Alicante. During her studies she obtained one research grant from the University of Alicante and another one from the Spanish Education Ministry both of them associated to ISTEW European Project. She was also the Co-Editor in Chief of IMPACT Journal. Currently, she is focus on her Phd research in the field of Healthcare Improvement and Quality Improvement. She is an experienced nurse with interest in evaluation tools for healthcare education in clinical contexts.